D.O. No. O-17034/Misc./2012-B&F (Vol. I)
New Delhi, dated the 7th August, 2013

Dear Shri Alok Rawat,

The Directorate of Printing, an attached office of Ministry of Urban Development is the nodal department of the Government of India for Printing and functions as a Government Printer. It has 15 Government of India Presses including 3 Text Book Presses situated throughout the country having equipment of Offset Technology with good infrastructure. These Presses are working on "No Profit - No Loss" basis. Rates of printing are approved by Chief Advisor Cost, Ministry of Finance. With the available facilities and infrastructure, Directorate can undertake and execute all types of the printing work. Presently executing time bound, sensitive and confidential nature of printing works of both the Houses of Parliament, President Secretariat, Prime Minister's Office, Cabinet Secretariat and other Ministries/Departments along with other works of general nature.

In addition, Presses are printing Gazettes of India and also uploading all the Gazette Notifications simultaneously. Since 1950 all the 18 parts, sections of all the Gazettes comprising of approximately 19 lakh pages have been uploaded on www.egazette.nic.in for easy public access. For up-gradation of Technology in Government of India Presses computerized, sophisticated and automatic machineries are continuously being added for better quality production with minimum cost. The Presses are run by professionals of Printing Technology having vast experience of the trade.

I shall be grateful, if you look into the matter and give an opportunity to Directorate of Printing by entrusting entire printing work for execution. I assure for best services and quality within fixed time schedule.

With Regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Sudhir Krishna)
