Gajendra Singh Shekhawat presides over Ganga Vichar Manch

Union Minister for Jal Shakti, Gajendra Singh Shekhawat presided over a workshop of the Ganga Vichar Manch, which is a platform for interactive dialogue among various stakeholders of Ganga. Citing the recognition given by the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) to Namami Gange as one of the world's top 10 flagship programmes to revive the natural world, Shekhawat said, "This award is dedicated to all who have been contributing to the cause of Ganga rejuvenation in their own ways."
