Subject: Webinar on "COVID learnings – Start-ups of Water Assets and Businesses - Challenges and Solutions"
18th July 2020 at 11AM

Respected Sir/Madam,

As you are aware that the nation is dealing with huge health and economic crisis which has not been seen or experienced by the present generation ever. It's obviously going to be a challenging time for all companies regardless of sector. We hope and pray that in the present situation every one of you is safe.

As always, ASSOCHAM comes back to you with a refined repository of content in the form of a virtual event - the best we can all do during these tough times!

We are sure you all have restarted your industry operation immediately after lockdown. Restarting water utilities after a long and unprecedented shutdown is a challenge for many. ASSOCHAM is going to organize a webinar that will be attended by a panel of water experts addressing your concern about the smooth and quick restarting of water and waste water treatment plants after a long shutdown.

ASSOCHAM Webinar on "COVID learnings – Start-ups of Water Assets and Businesses - Challenges and Solutions" is scheduled for 18th July 2020 at 11.00 A.M.

We are pleased to inform you that Shri Rattan Lal Kataria*, Hon'ble Minister of State, Ministry of Jal Shakti, GoI, is invited to be the Chief Guest to this webinar.

We highly encourage you to join this important webinar to learn from some of the most brilliant experts in the field of water management on how you can restart your businesses and cope with the challenges.
