Subject: - Technical Papers authored by CWC Officers.

CWC Officers often author Technical Papers which are presented at various forums and are also accepted for publication in National/ International Journals, however, there exists no central repository of such Papers in CWC. In this regard, I am directed to inform that it has been decided to create a repository (in TC Dte.) for maintaining a record of all such Technical Papers. Also, it has been decided to identify and acknowledge the 'Best Paper', on an annual basis.

Therefore, it is requested that a copy of all the Technical Papers authored by CWC Officers that have either been presented at any forum or published in any National/ International Journal (during FY 2022-23) along with details such as Publisher, Date of Publication, DOI or URL (if available), etc. may be provided to this office via e-mail (tcodte@nic.in) at the earliest and latest by 03.07.2023. Further, it is also requested that, in future, whenever a Technical Paper authored by CWC Officer is accepted for presentation or for publication in National/ International Journal, a copy of the same shall invariably be conveyed to this office by the concerned Officer.
