Guidelines for Honorarium

As per Ministry of Finance guidelines, honorarium should be sanctioned only in exceptional cases for work which is of special merit and is outside the normal sphere of duties of the Government servants concerned. The following guidelines should be kept in view by the administrative authorities in deciding each case.

- No honorarium is admissible for temporary increase in work, which are normal incidents of Government work and form part of the legitimate duties of Government servants according to the general principles enunciated in FR.11
- Honorarium should not be granted to officers engaged in work in connection with setting up of companies, corporations etc., which forms part of their normal duties, even if they work after the office hours.
- No honorarium should be given when a Government servant performs duties of another sanctioned post in addition to the normal duties attached to his own post.
- No honorarium should be granted in cases where OTA has been paid to the staff in connection with the same work.

Also following are the list of items for which Honorarium should not be paid.

1. Compilation of demand for grants and preparation of Budget Estimates Except Budget work of the Budget Division of Department of Economic Affairs.
2. Dealing with Parliament questions.
